Grab a drink atop the Refinery Hotel at the Refinery Rooftop, a turn-of-the-century hat factory turned luxury hotel. The retractable glass roof makes it a year-round destination rooftop while the amazing views of the Empire State Building can't be beat. Stop in for lunch and nibble on one of Chef John Haskell's inventive flatbreads or salads or stick around for happy hour. Their signature cocktails are sure to please with fun options like the Rooftop Sparkler (Patron Barrel Select Reposado, lime, agave, topped with prosecco) and the Refined Vesper (Absolut Elyx, Plymouth Gin, Lillet Blanc, grapefruit mist. A full evening food menu is also available, which includes some great sweet treats like the Trademark Cookie Skillet For Two (with Mexican chocolate gelato) as well as a selection of Jacque Torres Bon Bons. Yes, please.
