Breaking down Mayweather vs. McGregor. 29

'MAD AS HELL'

Where to watch the Mayweather-McGregor fight

Genres will collide this Saturday when boxer Floyd Mayweather comes out of retirement to take on the UFC's biggest star, Conor McGregor.

Watching the Aug. 26 fight at home would run you a cool $99.95 — and it won't match the atmosphere of a bar full of rowdy fans ready to see some action.

Plenty of bars are showing the fight around town, but we found some outstanding viewing parties for a guaranteed good time:

Slate NY has tons of games like pool and ping-pong, plus live music to keep you entertained. vax.watso

McGettigan's Irish Pub: The popular sports bar for everything from cricket to rugby will screen the fight throughout the bar as well as on a giant screen. Tables are first come, first served with a $40 cover charge (tickets are on sale now and going fast). Party goes from 8 p.m. to 2 a.m. with three-hour open bar packages ($60 or $90 for premium). 70 W. 36th St., Midtown, 212-913 0533

Slate: Stay busy at this upscale party bar with two floors of foosball, ping-pong and pool tables plus live music by Scream Jones leading up to the fight, which will be screened on a 20-foot

HD video wall as TVs throughout the venue. Hosted by Harlem rapper Dave East, entry is $20 while customizable table packages going up to $3,500. The party starts at 7 p.m. and goes cue and sides like Corona elote beginning at 5 p.m., with a DJ spinning before and after the fight until 4 a.m. 113-30 Queens Blvd., 718-520-8600

Libation: The McGregor and Mayweather fight will more than likely have a winner, but neither of them can beat a $1 themed cocktail from 8-9 p.m. Enjoy three floors of entertainment with a live DJ for just $25 (table service starts at $100), with five jumbo HD projectors and 16 screens to watch the action. 137 Ludlow St., libation@ingoodcompany.com
EVA KIS

Watermark Bar: No reservations, just show up to the Hudson-adjacent bar in the Financial District to watch the fight. Entry is $20; snack on spicy cheese nuggets and giant Angus beef hot dogs, with games like cornhole on their large patio on Pier 15. 78 South St., 212-742-8200
